

S. Pat Lupo

Benedictine Sisters Environmental Education and Advocate

Erie County

E-mail:

plupo@neighborhoodarthouse.org

Appointed: June 1988

Appointing Authority: Governor

Term Expires: January 15, 2013

Education:

B.A. Elementary Education, Mercyhurst College.

M.Ed. Science Education, Clarion State College.

Awards:

Lighting the Way, Governor Rendell's Environmental Award: Three Rivers Environmental Awards from the Pennsylvania Environmental Council and Duquesne Light Company for her work on environmental issues.

Actively involved in eco-justice concerns, environmental education and other related issues in the Erie area. Former Program Director of Lake Erie Allegheny Earth Force in Erie, a member of the steering committee for the Governor's Institute on Environment and Ecology and was a delegate to and keynote speaker at the International Conference of Religion, Land and Conservation held in Ohito, Japan. Currently serving in the Benedictine Sisters Environmental Education and Advocacy office. Serves as Pennsylvania's representative to the Great Lakes Protection Fund, a regional group of administrators managing a $100 million endowment fund.

During her tenure on council she has served on council's Environmental Standards, Resources Management, Special Protection Waters and Public Participation and Outreach Committee and as an elected Environmental Quality Board member and alternate. She is a member of the Integrated Projects Committee.