

The modeling protocols provide background information and describe the basic structure of the PM2.5 modeling demonstration that the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection will undertake. These demonstrations will become part of the Commonwealth's State Implementation Plan that will ensure the eight annual PM2.5 nonattainment areas will meet ambient standards. Modeling protocols follow the structure outlined in section 12.2 of the U.S. EPA's April 2007 guidance.