

Finding Pennsylvania's Solar Future: Meeting #2

Thursday, June 8, 2017 | 10:00 am – 4:00 pm

Carnegie Mellon University

Rangos Ballroom at the Jared L. Cohon University Center

9:30 – 10:00 am: Registration

10:00 – 10:30 am: Welcome

- Welcome, Introduction of Attendees - David Althoff
- Opening Remarks
 - Dr. Jay Whitacre, Director & Anna J. Siefkin, Associate Director of the Wilton E. Scott Institute for Energy Innovation, Carnegie Mellon University.
- Project Background – David Althoff

10:30 – 11:15 am: Overview of modeling and results for reference and initial solar scenario (VEIC)

- Model overview
- Reference and Initial Scenario results
- Questions from Stakeholders

Break

11:30 – 12:15 am: Demand and Transformation Analyses in the LEAP model (VEIC)

- Details and examples from Demand Module
- Details and examples from Transformation Module
- Questions from Stakeholders

Break Lunch (Boxed Lunches Provided)

12:30 pm: Working Lunch

- Remarks by Grant Ervin, Chief Resiliency Officer, City of Pittsburgh
- Zaheen Hussein, Sustainability Coordinator, Millvale

12:50 – 1:00 pm: Stakeholder Interaction (Rob Altenburg & Facilitators)

- Expectations for Afternoon Workgroup Sessions

1:00 – 3:00 pm: Workgroup Breakouts (All)

- Meet with workgroup facilitators
 - Regulatory and Ratemaking (Wright Room): Ron Celentano
 - Markets and Business Models (Rangos Ballroom): Sharon Pillar
 - Operations and Interconnection (Peter Room): Jeffrey Brownson, PhD

3:00 – 4:00 pm: Reconvene in Rangos Ballroom

- Workgroup report out – Facilitators and group leaders
- Next Steps – Rob Altenburg
- Final Thoughts – David Althoff

4:00 pm: Adjourn