

DRAFT
Socio-Economic and Land Use
Outline for Regional Components

September 19, 2005

1. Land area of basin (square miles)
2. Number of municipalities and counties in basin
 - a. Percent of each county within the basin
3. Census information for each basin and population projections
4. Number of municipal comprehensive plans, county comprehensive plans, regional plans/studies, number of zoning ordinances, building ordinances, multi-mun plans and ordinances
5. Historic population and growth trends
6. Identify and describe core population areas, urban areas, suburbs, designated growth areas, agricultural areas, open space/preserved areas, greenways
7. Employment data and trends
8. Principal industries and economic development initiatives
 - a. Highlight water-based industries
9. Transportation corridors
10. Transportation plans
11. Major areas of recreation/tourism
12. Historic setting and water based historic resources
13. Number and location of watersheds
14. Number and location of watershed groups/plans
15. Number of stream miles
16. Number of public water suppliers and population served

17. Number of Rivers conservation plans and other regionally significant plans related to water resources/river and stream corridors, such as federal heritage area or state heritage corridor plans,

18. Number of MS-4 communities

19. Number of stormwater plans