The purpose of this Critical Area Advisory Committee meeting is to discuss CARP management recommendation prioritization and implementation. ICPRB will present on the preliminary development of CARP management recommendations from the list of brainstormed management alternatives. Feedback on the process used and the results obtained are encouraged. The meeting will also include a series of presentations on the implementation of management recommendations from various stakeholder perspectives.

Agenda:

- 1:00-1:05: Welcome and introductions.....Charles Bennett, Chair
- 1:05-1:10: Approval of meeting minutes, comments from public.....Charles Bennett, Chair
- 1:10-1:30: ICPRB update.....Heidi Moltz/Jim Palmer, ICPRB

Complete list of management alternatives → CARP recommendations; Next steps

- 1:30-2:55: Implementation of CARP management recommendations.....Charles Bennett, Chair
Objective: To encourage discussion on the implementation of CARP management recommendations, a series of speakers representing various stakeholder groups will present their perspectives on the following questions: 1) what management alternatives are of greatest interest to you or your stakeholder group, 2) what are the steps that you or folks in your stakeholder group will need to proceed with in order to implement the management alternatives, 3) from your perspective, what are the major benefits/drivers for implementation of the management recommendations, 4) what are the challenges that your stakeholder group faces in implementing the management alternatives, and 5) how, if possible, can the challenges be addressed/overcome?

Speakers (~15 min. each, including Q&A):

Nick Colonna, Adams County Office of Planning and Development

Joe McNally, Geoservices Ltd.

Mark Guise, Gettysburg Municipal Authority

Adam McClain, Adams County Conservation District

What are your answers to the five questions listed above? After presentations by the speakers, the floor will be open to hear from all meeting participants. Your involvement is encouraged!

- 2:55-3:00: Closing remarks.....Charles Bennett, Chair
