Re: Operating Permit Extension
Keystone Sanitary Landfill, Inc.
Permit Renewal Application
Application No. 101247-A241
APS ID# 1111148, AUTH ID# 1479927
Dunmore and Throop Boroughs, Lackawanna County

Dear Mr. DeNaples:

Reference is made to the permit renewal application received by the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection (Department) on April 3, 2024. This application is for renewal of the operating permit for Keystone Sanitary Landfill, Inc. (KSL), located at 249 Dunham Drive, Dunmore, Lackawanna County.

The renewal application was deemed administratively complete on April 11, 2024. Technical review of the renewal application commenced at that time. As you are aware, the current permit expires on April 6, 2025.

In order to allow for sufficient time for the Department to evaluate the KSL renewal application, the recent EHB decision regarding the appeal of KSL's Phase III Major Modification Approval, the effectiveness of KSL's odor control and leachate management measures that were required under the March 29, 2024 Consent Order and Agreement, and other operational conditions, the Department is hereby extending the term of KSL's permit until October 6, 2025. The enclosed Form 13-A provides the Department time to complete review of the renewal application and evaluate all of the additional information mentioned above. Except as explicitly identified in the permit conditions and the enclosed Form 13-A, no other operation or construction change has been approved.

If the terms of the permit conditions of this extension are not complied with, it is not guaranteed that this permit term will be extended again. Therefore, if the conditions of this extension are not complied with to the satisfaction of the Department, KSL may have to prepare to cease all operations at the site and commence closure activities.

Any person aggrieved by this action may appeal the action to the Environmental Hearing Board (Board) pursuant to Section 4 of the Environmental Hearing Board Act, 35 P.S. § 7514, and the Administrative Agency Law, 2 Pa. C.S. Chapter 5A. The Board's address is:
